

how about coffee and tea? It is no surprise we have not earned anything at all. Our wages are too low for their prices.

Do you have pepper, nutmeg and perhaps chocolate for the grandchildren? Cotton thread and (?) which is not for him. Any exchange price we could be found here. Of you have old things, old stockings, I would be very thankful. Only thing you can do is think it does not have to be. I don't want you to take anything you need yourself. Even a letter only will make me happy. I have one more question. Do you have hair nets in black? and thin? If so, could you get me one or two? When I open your boxes (things) and prepare in meat and in tastes so good, tears fall out of my eyes. Believe me. I would like to give you a big hug for that if it was not so far away.

Do you celebrate Christmas with a Christmas tree over there? I am not sure that question.

Now my beloved, I trust to finish. It is late and my eyes are closing. Good night and a good night.

Love from
from father-in-law and Aunt Augusta.

My very dear
Augusta Mary,
